PRESENTERS

AGENDA

A representative from the University of Kentucky’s College of Education will provide the keynote presentation at this year’s conference. The staff at UK’s College of Ed. endeavors to expand the knowledge of teaching and learning processes across a broad educational spectrum. The College prepares professional educators to join local and global efforts in addressing some of society’s most critical needs in education. Currently, graduates of the College work in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and 25 countries.

Wayne Young is Executive Director of the KY Association of School Administrators. He has worked with KASA for 27 years, starting as legal counsel and lobbyist and has served as executive director over the past 21 years. Wayne has taught school law at the graduate level for the University of Louisville, published articles on education law and other education issues, and continues to provide support to educators through presentations at regional, state, and national conferences.

Mike Carr is entering his seventh year as Director of Certification with the Education Professional Standards Board of Kentucky. Mike served 27 years in the Fayette County Schools as a teacher and administrator. Prior to coming to EPSB, he served as Deputy Director of the Kentucky Association of School Administrators. Mike is a frequently invited guest to educator groups across Kentucky to keep the two-way communication open between school districts and EPSB.

Myron Thompson is the Director of Risk Management for the Kentucky School Boards Insurance Trust, a self-insured pool that provides workers’ compensation, property and casualty insurance to Kentucky school districts. Myron worked as the Risk Manager for Fayette County Public Schools for nine years and served as a safety compliance officer for the Kentucky Labor Cabinet, “OSHA” for three years. He is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University where he obtained two bachelor degrees in Fire and Safety Engineering Technology and Insurance and Risk Management. He obtained a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Kentucky.

Candace Souder & Renee Scott are educators in the Quality and Diversity department at KDE. Candace is the Transition to Teaching liaison for the partnership with TTT, KDE and the Department of Education as well as the Kentucky Educator Placement Service contact. Renee works with the Kentucky State Advisory Panel for Exceptional Children and is the department’s contact for 504 Plans. Their Division seeks to recruit, select, and retain exceptional, multi-dimensional individuals who have chosen education as their career.

Teresa Combs has worked for KSBA since 1996. She trains public education staff in legal matters and works closely with KSBA Insurance Program attorneys in defending special education, Section 504 and ADA claims. She has worked for school districts for more than 20 years.
